Major financial decisions.
Easier to understand. Easier to explain.

Recent Canadian compliance and anti-money laundering regulations and laws, along with significant penalties, are putting pressure on businesses and increasing compliance costs and workloads.

4orm Finance is building integrated “counselling-centred” intelligence tools for businesses to enhance their client discovery experience. The tools allow clients to privately explore major financial decisions, model and optimize potential outcomes, and comprehend potential short and long term risks. This experience enhances the client’s ability to move forward with greater clarity and confidence.

4orm Finance integrates into the business’s existing applications and compliance tools, helping to reduce costs and discovery time while supporting the suitability procedure and creating an auditable record throughout the decision process.

Forward Looking Statements and Future-oriented Financial Information

This presentation contains statements that, to the extent that they are not historical fact, may constitute "forward-looking information" within the meaning of applicable securities legislation. These statements include, among others, statements regarding business strategy, plans, goals, objectives or performance of the Company, or the assumption underlying any of the foregoing. Future-oriented financial information contained in this presentation about prospective financial performance, financial position or cash flows is based on assumptions about future events, including economic conditions and proposed courses of action, based on management's assessment of the relevant information currently available. The prospective financial information included in this presentation has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of, management. 4orm believes that prospective financial information has been prepared on a reasonable basis, reflecting the best estimates and judgments, and represents, to the best of their knowledge and opinion, the Company's expected course of action.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and assumptions could adversely affect the outcome and financial effects of the plans and events described herein. Forward-looking information contained in this Presentation is based on current estimates, expectations and projections, which 4orm believes are reasonable as of the current date. Such forward-looking information is provided for the purpose of providing information about 4orm's current expectations and plans relating to the future. Investors are cautioned that reliance on such information may not be appropriate for other purposes, such as making investment decisions, and are subject to known or unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other unpredictable factors, many of which are beyond 4orm's control. Investors should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which are based on the information available as of the date of this document, and 4orm disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information contained in this document, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, unless required by applicable law. The forward-looking information included in this Presentation is expressly qualified in its entirety by this cautionary statement.

New Canadian compliance and anti-money laundering laws and regulations are putting pressure on businesses and increasing compliance costs and workload, while nearly half of homebuyers feel uncertain or concerned during a major financial decision.

100%	of files examined lacked a documented suitability assessment, up from 85%.[1]
73%	of files examined had missing or inadequate risk disclosure, up from 48%.[1]
105	investment firms reviewed for client-focused reforms. Gaps required action.[2]
47%	of homebuyers felt uncertain or concerned during the homebuying process.[3]
8 to 30	FINTRAC penalties issued, 2021 versus 2025, as reported by Torys.[4]
40×	Anti-money laundering: higher FINTRAC penalty limits, up to C$20M per very serious entity violation.[5]

Compliance programs must work in practice.
Bill C-12 received Royal Assent on March 26, 2026.

Effective in practice

Programs must be risk-based, reasonably designed and demonstrably effective.

Stronger enforcement

Certain failures can be very serious violations. Agreements and orders add further consequences.

Broader enrolment

More businesses will need to enrol with FINTRAC as the new rules take effect.

Financing and leasing

Covered entities have had compliance-program and record duties since April 1, 2025.

Clear records help a firm demonstrate how its compliance program works.

Sources: FINTRAC, Modernization and upcoming changes; Administrative monetary penalties amendments (2026).

The firms carry the burden.
The buyers want software economics.

Mortgage brokers say the new rules add cost, training and process work. Firms without technology carry the heaviest burden.

“The new FINTRAC requirements have definitely been a challenge for brokerages.”

Terry Kilakos
President, North East Real Estate and Mortgage Agency. Passed an audit in January 2026 after substantial work on programs, tracking and monitoring.

A greater burden on agents without technology.

Dave Teixeira
Operations Executive, Dominion Lending Centres Group. The network partnered with Newton to use its integrated Velocity mortgage platform.

“If software can deliver a compliance stack for $25K to $50K instead of $250K to $300K, the market becomes more viable.”

Ali Aboudaya
Founder, CADX. The market wants compliance economics closer to software than consulting.

“We have great software, and it is cheap. But somebody still has to rectify it.”

Century 21
Cheap software does not remove the human labour underneath it.

Firms do not need another application. They need less manual rebuilding across the applications they already use.

4orm Intelligence helps people think through major financial decisions. It connects what they share with what the business already has.

People can explore their concerns, model possible outcomes and share what is needed with the professional. The business can explain the recommendation and keep a clear, auditable record of how the decision was reached.

Self-funded growth

Positive operating cash flow

Growth capital from revenue

Distributions only if approved

The first close funds a validation gate. The full pre-seed and the capital plan behind it fund the path to self-sustaining cash flow.

Cash-flow positive in January 2028.
Here is what has to be true for that date to hold.

01
Capital in
Pre-seed funds build, validation and early selling.

02
Paid firms
Subscriptions and decision records begin recurring revenue.

03
Reusable delivery
Mortgage proof becomes repeatable implementation.

04
Operating leverage
Revenue grows faster than fixed team and support costs.

05
Cash-flow positive
January 2028, the first month operating profit turns positive.

BREAKEVEN DRIVERS

Paying core firms in the breakeven year	70
Annual core firm subscription	C$20,000
Completed decision records, 2028	50,000
Gross margin at breakeven	67%
Monthly operating cost base, 2028	C$301K
Lowest cash balance across the plan	C$413K, October 2026

We are not only showing revenue growth. We are showing when the company can fund operations from customer cash, and what assumptions drive that date.

The return model connects to cash.
No distribution without profit and distributable cash.

Equity value growth

Firm subscriptions, decision-record usage and enterprise modules increase recurring revenue and enterprise value over time.

Potential distributions

Only after sustained profitability, adequate cash reserves and board approval. Shown annually, never as one unexplained cumulative number.

Future liquidity

Possible paths include strategic acquisition, a future secondary transaction or another liquidity event. No liquidity is guaranteed.

DISTRIBUTION MECHANICS

Revenue → Gross profit → EBITDA → Taxes and reinvestment → Available cash → Board-approved distribution

Illustrative only. Subject to profits, available cash and approvals. Annual amounts by year, 2027 through 2031, are completed from the pro forma.

Illustrative 2031 outcomes by investment size.

The first-tranche minimum is C$10,000. Dividends and targeted equity value are shown separately using the same model assumptions.

C$2.5M pre-seed.
The first C$500,000 is the initial close, not the whole plan.

C$2.5M
planned pre-seed raise
Funds product build, mortgage validation, go to market, privacy and commercial readiness, and operating runway.

C$500K
initial close
Funds the next delivery period and commercial proof before the broader pre-seed is completed.

C$2.0M
remaining target
Completes the 18-month execution plan, October 2026 through March 2028. About 20 months of runway in total.

WHERE THE FULL PRE-SEED GOES

People and advisors	C$1,005,000
Speer build and maintenance	C$460,000
Legal and security	C$190,000
Running the company	C$180,000

The 2027 grant strategy extends runway.
Amount, timing, status and use of funds.

ROUTE	SUPPORT LEVEL	POTENTIAL USE	2027 STATUS
NRC IRAP	Project-specific	Technical research and development	Target and application plan
SR&ED	35% enhanced rate	Qualifying research costs	Claim timing and cash impact
Alberta Innovation Employment Grant	Up to 20%	Alberta research expenditure	Eligibility to confirm
Mitacs Accelerate	C$7.5K into C$15K	Academic research partnership	Partner to identify
ElevateIP Alberta	C$100K company cap	Intellectual property strategy and protection	Route to pursue

These are routes to pursue, not secured funding. Confirmed net funding extends runway and reduces future equity needs.

*Eligibility, reimbursement timing and funding offsets apply. No awards are recorded as secured.

Why invest in 4orm.

A growing business problem. A clearer workflow. A large market opportunity.

01 Growing business problem

Compliance pressure is increasing, while documentation alone still fails to show what the client understood and why the recommendation made sense.

02 Founder-product-market fit

4orm comes from direct experience in high-consequence operating systems, business building and financial decision support.

03 We understand the consumer

The founders have worked one-on-one with hundreds of people directly and supported thousands indirectly through financial decision-making, risk and behaviour change.

04 Business-first savings

4orm helps businesses reduce repeated discovery, improve suitability evidence, integrate with current tools and provide a better client value-add.

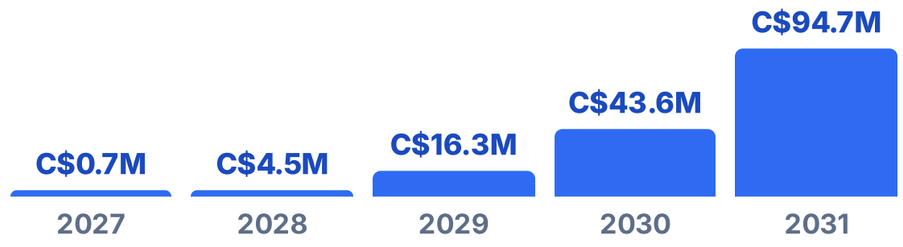

05 Built to protect people before money moves

4orm is building tools that help businesses protect people before money is ever moved, and preserve why the decision made sense.

06 Strong build and advisory support

Speer, legal counsel and experienced advisors strengthen delivery, governance and readiness for regulated clients.

Illustrative revenue path

4orm gives businesses tools to guide clients more clearly, understand them better and preserve the evidence regulators increasingly expect.

That creates savings for the business and better outcomes for the people they serve.

Base case reaches C$94.7M with approximately 3.5% penetration of the currently identified financial firm market.
